

F
L
O
R
I
D
A

Candidate	Share of Voice	Positive Sentiment	Negative Sentiment	Neutral Sentiment	Candidate Index	Ranking	Positive Impressions	Negative Impressions
Joe Biden	37%	49%	35%	16%	0.58	1	"If I ever get to meet him. He can hug me. I love hugs. You see he is a politician they are known to campaign with hugs so it comes natural like that." (W. Jay, Twitter)	"Joe, your ship has sailed. You missed your shot in 2016 when you were told to make room for the queen to be. You both lost." (Julia, Twitter)
Bernie Sanders	24%	37%	49%	14%	0.43	5	"You're right actually the useless dem party hates Bernie because he woke the youth up to the garbage being shoved on them by both parties." (Mack, Twitter)	"Socialists like Bernie Sanders vilify the rich as "greedy" In reality, they're the greedy ones" (Charlie, Twitter)
Elizabeth Warren	14%	28%	44%	28%	0.39	4	"I don't really talk politics but Elizabeth Warren is really the 1st politician that is talking about something that directly applies to me." (Yuri, Twitter)	"Elizabeth Warren isn't about fairness, she's about grandstanding and (yes) socialism. Very refreshing to see this type of insight and balance from Florida Today... bravo to you." (R. Nick, Facebook)
Kamala Harris	8%	24%	30%	46%	0.44	2	"Kamala Harris has never been discouraged by polls. She's been the underdog before and fought back to be the victor. She'll do that again in 2020." (Teiman, Twitter)	"Kamala Harris is not interested in the evidence or the truth. She is just creating a narrative to see if it will stick." (Paul, Twitter)
Cory Booker	7%	20%	32%	48%	0.38	3	"Much respect, Senator Booker." (LeKeishna, Facebook)	"Cory Booker had his chance to walk back his prior bullshit attitude about charter school industry... and he chose not to" (T. Lemmon, Twitter)

Data Analytics: ENODO conducted topic modeling and measured public sentiment of online discussions in Florida. Analysts collected and analyzed 21,765 Twitter posts, 17,945 Facebook posts, 15,356 Instagram posts, 13,733 YouTube comments, 11,948 news websites, 9,868 RSS feeds, and 7,884 blogs in English.